

The Leadership Judging Process

The eligible submissions will be judged by a group of leading construction risk and insurance specialists.

The submissions will be evaluated on the following criteria.

- Commitment to construction risk management: time spent in the construction risk management
- Acts with integrity
- Selflessness in serving construction risk management: volunteer and pro bono work performed in the construction industry and for other charitable interests
- Creativity/Vision for construction risk management: has developed or overseen projects that have positively impacted construction risk management
- Nurtures and encourages professional growth in construction risk management: mentoring and educational efforts
- Communication: openly and actively shares knowledge toward the betterment of construction risk management

Every eligible submission received will be judged individually by each member of the judging panel based on the submission criteria outlined above. One winner will be selected from all eligible submissions received. Only one submission will be accepted per nominee. Only a winner will be announced. Nominees not chosen will roll forward to the next year for consideration unless we are notified to remove them from the nominee pool.