

THE ADDITIONAL INSURED BOOK

Table of Contents

About the Authors

Chapter 1: Executive Summary

- Reasons for Requiring Additional Insured Status
- Additional Named Insured Status
- Additional Insured versus Contractual Liability Coverage
- Coverage Scope
- Additional Insured Coverage and Indemnity
- Certificates of Insurance
- Professional Liability and E&O Insurance
- Breach of Additional Insured Requirement
- Blanket Additional Insured Endorsements
- OCP Policy as an Alternative
- Marine and Aircraft Liability Insurance
- Summary

Chapter 2: Named Insured Status

- “Named Insured” Defined
- Rights and Duties of Named Insured
  - Impact of Policy Rescission
  - Premium Obligations
  - Notice Requirements
- Cross-Liability Exclusions
- Named Insureds and Deductibles
- Summary

Chapter 3: Automatic Insured Status

- Automatic Insureds
  - Stockholders
  - Proprietorships
  - Partnerships, Joint Ventures, and Limited Liability Companies
  - Executive Officers
  - Employees as Insureds
  - Volunteer Workers
  - Leased Workers
  - Real Estate Managers
  - Professional Services Exclusion
  - Other Automatic Insureds

“Doing Business as”

- Individually Owned Businesses
- Partnerships and Joint Ventures
- Corporations

Summary

Chapter 4: Additional Insured Status

Reasons for Requiring Additional Insured Status

- Reinforcement of Risk Transfer by Contract
- Securing Direct Rights in the Policy
- Preventing Subrogation
- Obtaining Personal Injury Coverage

Scope of Additional Insured Coverage

- Employment Exclusion Application
- Vicarious versus Direct Liability

Additional Insured versus Additional Named Insured

- “Additional Named Insured” Defined
- Distinctions between Insureds and Named Insureds
- Application of Contractual Liability Coverage
- Additional Insured Status Preferred

Written Contract or Written Agreement

Summary

Chapter 5: Problems with Additional Insured Status

Dilution of Limits

Defense Conflict of Interest

Providing Unintended Coverage

Indemnitee as Additional Insured

Loss of Defense Control

Increased Risk of Coverage Disputes

- Additional Insured versus Contractual Liability Coverage

The Additional Insured Other Insurance Problem

- Additional Insured Status: Allocation Among Insurers

The Primary and Noncontributory Endorsement

Horizontal versus Vertical Exhaustion of Limits

Arranging Vertical Exhaustion of Limits

Loss of Governmental Immunity by Public Entities

Breach of Contract as a Basis for Excluding Coverage

Summary

Chapter 6: Separation of Insureds and Cross-Liability

- Severability of Interests
- Cross-Liability and Additional Insureds
- The Employee Injury Exclusion and Severability
- Parent and Subsidiary Company Issues
- Fellow Employee Cross-Liability Exclusion
- The Insured versus An Insured
- Cross-Liability Exclusion Endorsements
- Summary

Chapter 7: Standard Additional Insured Endorsements

- Historical Development
- Current ISO Endorsements
  - Keeping Up With ISO Endorsement Changes
- AAIS Additional Insured Endorsements
- Summary

Chapter 8: Engineers, Architects, Surveyors as Additional Insureds

- Design Professionals as Additional Insureds
  - Relevant Case Law
- Design Professional Contractual Liability Exclusion
- Design Professionals Not Engaged by the Named Insured
- Summary

Chapter 9: Owners and Contractors as Additional Insureds

- Endorsement CG 20 10
  - 2004 Changes to CG 20 10
  - Anti-Indemnity Statutes and Insurance Requirements
  - Third-Party-Over Claims
- Additional Insureds and Completed Operations Arising Out of
  - Wrap-Up Endorsements
- Summary

Chapter 10: OCP versus Additional Insured Status

- OCP Policy Coverage
  - The General Supervision Limitation
  - Overcoming the Problem of Subrogation
- Choosing OCP or Additional Insured Status
  - Breadth of Coverage
  - The Anti-Indemnity Issue

- Is an OCP Policy the Better Choice?
- Separate Set of Limits
- Access to Named Insured's Umbrella
- Effect on Loss Experience
- Cost
- Other Insurance Problems
- Cancellation Notice

Summary

Chapter 11: Real Property Lessors as Additional Insureds

- Ownership, Maintenance, or Use Limitation
- Interpreting Additional Insured Lessor of Premises Endorsement
- Owner of Land as Additional Insured
- Summary

Chapter 12: Vendors as Additional Insureds

- Who Is Insured under CG 20 15
- Additional Insured—Vendors—Automatic Status When Required in Agreement (CG 20 44)
“In the Regular Course of”
- Vendors Endorsement Other Insurance Problem
- Vendors Endorsement Coverage Limitations
- Other Vendors Endorsement Case Law
  - Types of Products Covered
- Vendors Endorsement and Trademark Infringement
- Summary

Chapter 13: Blanket Additional Insured Endorsements and Provisions

- Standard Automatic Additional Insured Endorsements
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Limited to Contracting Parties (CG 20 33)
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Not Limited to Contracting Parties (CG 20 38)
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Limited to Contracting Parties—Completed Operations (CG 20 39)
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Not Limited to Contracting Parties—Completed Operations (CG 20 40)
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Designated Operations (CG 20 42)
  - Automatic Additional Insured Status—Non-Construction Contracts (CG 20 43)
  - Lessor of Leased Equipment—Automatic Additional Insured Status (CG 20 34)
- Nonstandard Automatic Additional Insured Endorsements
  - Eligibility
  - Scope of Coverage
  - Limits of Insurance

Application of Other Insurance
Exclusions

Summary

Chapter 14: Umbrella and Excess Liability Insurance

Umbrella Broad Form Named Insured Provisions
Umbrella Insureds as in Underlying Provision
Scope of Additional Insured Coverage in Umbrellas

Extent of Additional Insured's Fault
Notice and Additional Premium
Underlying Coverage Prerequisite
Applicable Limits of Liability

Excess Policy Insured Status
Other Insurance and Priority of Payment

The Search for a Solution
Best Practice: Clarify Intentions

Summary

Chapter 15: Additional Insured Status under Commercial Auto Insurance

Severability of Interests
Extent of Permission Use
Meaning of "Use"
Auto Policy Additional Insureds

Business Auto Coverage Form
Motor Carrier Coverage Form
Auto Dealers Coverage Form

Commercial Auto Additional Insured Endorsements

Endorsements for All Commercial Auto Forms
Vicarious Liability and Additional Insured Status
Principal-Agent Relationships
Auto Dealers Endorsements

Summary

Chapter 16: Workers Compensation Insurance

Alternate Employer Situations
Dual Employment and Joint Employment
Employee Leasing
Summary

Chapter 17: Professional and E&O Liability Insurance

- Professional Liability Insured Status
- Professional Liability Insured Status for Clients
- Summary

Chapter 18: Commercial Property Insurance

- Insurable Interest
- Mortgagees as Additional Insureds
- Loss Payable Provision
  - Loss Payable Provision
  - Lenders Loss Payable Provision
  - Contract of Sale Provision
  - Building Owner Loss Payable Provision
  - ISO Endorsement CP 12 18
- Commercial Property Additional Insured Endorsements
  - Additional Insured Endorsements
  - As Their Interests May Appear
- Builders Risk Insureds
  - Builders Risk Policy Subrogation Provision
  - Including Contractors as Insureds
  - Waiver of Subrogation Endorsement
- Commercial Property Separation of Insureds
- Summary

Chapter 19: Marine and Aircraft Insurance

- Marine Liability Insurance
- Marine Liability Insured Status
  - “As Owner” Clauses
  - Additional Insured Status Still Has Its Advantages
  - Waiver of Subrogation versus Additional Insured Status
  - Contractual Liability Exposures and Coverages
  - Choice of Law Is Critical
- Aircraft Liability Insurance
- Summary

Chapter 20: Certificates of Insurance

- History of Insurance Certificates
- Problems with Standard Certificate Forms
  - No Guarantee That Policy Exists
  - Uncertain Additional Insured Status
  - No Endorsement Attached
  - Blanket Additional Insured Endorsement Problems

- Contract Terms Do Not Confer Additional Insured Status
- Totality of Circumstances
- Protection Below Expectations
- Vicarious Liability Only
- Key Exclusion Not Disclosed
- Impairment of Aggregate Limits
- Deductibles and SIRs
- No Notice of Cancellation
- Certificate Fraud

Solving Insurance Certificate Problems

- Reciting the Indemnity Agreement
- Identifying the Additional Insured Endorsement
- Empowering Certificates To Add Additional Insureds
- Designating the Project
- Negating Existence of Exclusions
- Copy of Entire Policy
- Periodic Checks for Cancellations
- Using Pre-2009 Certificates
- Modifying Post-2009 Certificates
- Manuscript Certificates
- Notice of Cancellation Endorsements
- Notice by Named Insured
- Notice by Agent
- Insuring the Project Another Way
- The Wrap-Up Approach
- The OCP Option
- Memorandum of Insurance

- A Practical Look at Administration
- Do's and Don'ts
- Summary

Chapter 21: Compliance Problems

- Administrative Burdens Resulting in a Breach
- Case Law on Failure To Insure
  - No Coverage for Breach of Contract
  - No Liability for Contract Breach
  - Preventing the Breach: Wrap-Up Approach
- Summary