

THE MCS-90 BOOK

Table of Contents

The MCS-90 Book

Acknowledgments

About the Authors

Executive Summary

What Is the MCS-90?

What Does the MCS-90 Say?

Chapter 1: Historical and Statutory Background

The Early Years

The Motor Carrier Act of 1935

BMC-90—The Precursor to MCS-90

The Motor Carrier Act of 1980

The Post-1995 World

Chapter 2: BMC-91 vs. MCS-90—Filing vs. Endorsement

BMC-91 versus MCS-90

The BMC-91 (or 91x) Filing

The MCS-90: How Is this Endorsement Different from All Others?

Interaction of the BMC-91 Filing and the MCS-90 Endorsement

When Does the Insurer's Exposure under the MCS-90 Begin and End?

Chapter 3: The "Insured" under the MCS-90

Who Is the "Insured"?

Chapter 4: The Scope of the Endorsement: When Is the MCS-90 Triggered?

The Triggers

A Final Judgment

Settling before Judgment

Public Liability

Negligent Use of Certain Automobiles

Motor Vehicles Subject to Sections 29 and 30 of the Motor Carrier Act of 1980

Chapter 5: Judgments Against the Named Insured Motor Carrier That Do Not Trigger the MCS-90

Loss Outside the United States

Intrastate Shipments

Losses in Which the Insured's USDOT Authority Is Not Being Used

Cargo Losses

Bodily Injury to Truck Driver or Others Working for the Insured Motor Carrier

Other Issues

Chapter 6: MCS-90 and the Primary/Excess Debate

Priority of Coverages

MCS-90—Analyzing Priority of Coverages

Should the MCS-90 Ever Apply if the Claimants Have Been Compensated to USDOT Financial Security Limits from Some Other Source?

MCS-90—Summary

Chapter 7: MCS-90 and Pollution (aka Environmental Restoration)

The History Behind the Inclusion of Environmental Protection in the MCS-90

The Impact of the MCS-90's Environmental Provision

CERCLA versus MCS-90

Chapter 8: MCS-90 Cancellation and Some Miscellaneous Issues

Cancellation and Miscellany

Duty To Defend

Reimbursement after Settlement

Intentional Torts

Punitive Damages

Pre-judgment or Post-judgment Interest

MCS-90 Limits: Multiple Claimants or Multiple Vehicles

Chapter 9: The MCS-90B and the Bus Regulatory Reform Act of 1982

Regulation of Bus Transportation

Chapter 10: MCS-90 and the State Equivalent Filings—Form E and Form F

Intrastate Filings

Form E and Form F

California's Filing Form E and Endorsement Form F

Addendum: MCS-90 Underwriting Issues and Tips

FMCSA Licensing and Insurance Website

Recovering MCS-90 Payments from Insureds

Obtaining Underwriting Information from SAFER, SMS, and CAB

The Importance of Cancelling Filings

Impact of Nonstandard Coverage